

ADVANCE
ING
FACULTY PROGRAM

Newsletter
April 2011

Negotiation and Leadership Workshops— May 10 and 11

Barbara Butterfield and Jane Tucker will be joining us May 10 and 11 for two workshops. “Faculty Negotiations, Problem Solving and Conflict Resolution” on Tuesday, May 10 and “ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP AGENDA: A Seminar for Faculty Anticipating, Considering or Continuing Academic Leadership Roles” on Wednesday, May 11. Both workshops will take place from 8 a.m.—12 noon in BH 301. SPACE IS LIMITED TO 24 for both workshops—sign up by Friday, April 29 to reserve your spot. We will pay your registration fee for both workshops. Barbara and Jane are recognized as some of the best in the nation—we won’t be bringing them back to campus—so clear your schedule and take advantage of these great opportunities!

Our last Faculty Lunch at the Ropp for this academic year will be in May 18 from 12:30–1:30 p.m. Come learn about issues and strategies that you face at each stage of your career and contribute to the discussion of how to manage around them!

Questions? Want more information about the ADVANCEing Faculty Program? Contact the Office for Women in Science and Engineering (OWISE) at:

advance@latech.edu

call us at 257-2101, or check out our website at:

www.advance.latech.edu

OWISE Library

We have lots of great professional development books in the OWISE Library that you can check out for free! “Women Don’t Ask” and “Ask For It” focus on securing the resources you need to effectively do your job. “Why So Slow” is a great book if you want to understand more about gender issues and their impact on your career. “Why So Few” is a concise look at some key gender issues, the research behind them and concrete steps for addressing them. “Whistling Vivaldi” is an in-depth look at stereotype threat and how it affects each of us. You can check any of these out—just stop by the Dean’s Office and talk with Ms. Shultz.

Mentoring Awards Banquet

The Mentoring Awards Banquet is this Friday, April 15 at 6:30 p.m. in the Biomedical Engineering Building Rotunda. Join us as we recognize successful mentors and the value that they bring in promoting the professional development of their colleagues. Dr. Lori Bakken, University of Wisconsin-Madison, will be our guest speaker. Her talk will be entitled “Mentoring Relationships: Mutually Creating a Universe of Possibility.”