Mentoring Workshop

Reserve Thursday, January 14 from 11:00–12 noon for the ADVANCEing Faculty Mentoring Workshop. Research has repeatedly documented that mentoring increases career advancement, networking, satisfaction and retention. Moreover, mentoring proves as beneficial for the mentor as the mentee. Anyone interested in learning more about mentoring is invited to attend the workshop. We will answer your questions about mentoring, the benefits, how it works, what is required, etc.

ADVANCEing Faculty Mentoring Workshop
Thursday, January 14
11:00 a.m.–12:00 noon
BH 301

Lunch will be provided!

Call the OWISE Office at 257-2101 or e-mail us at advance@latech.edu to sign up!

Grant Pre-Review Program

The ADVANCEing Faculty Grant Pre-Review Program is now open! Take advantage of the opportunity to have an external expert provide a valuable pre-review of your grant proposal! The Program will fund 8 awards annually for $400 each. Applications are accepted and reviewed continuously throughout the year and should include a draft of the proposal, a copy of the RFP for the federal program to which the grant will be submitted, and a list of up to three potential external reviewers (with contact information).

Upcoming Programs!

After the first of the year, we will be rolling out the ADVANCEing Faculty Executive Coaching Program. Executive Coaching provides targeted professional development for skill development, strategic thinking, purposeful planning, and enhancing leadership skills. Learn more about it at the January Faculty Lunch at the Ropp!

The January Faculty Lunch at the Ropp will be: Thursday, Jan. 21, from 11 - 12 noon and our topic will be: Executive Coaching! Our special guest will be the project evaluator, Ginger Fitzhugh, from Evaluation & Research Associates.
